

KBK Industries
Engineering and Quality Control

KBK Industries is seeking an engineer for our fast growing fiberglass storage tank division. KBK manufactures fiberglass storage tanks for the oil industry, agricultural industry as well as fiberglass pressure vessels for the oil and transportation industries. We are a fast growing company and this position will have the opportunity to grow and expand with the company. We are looking to fill an engineering and quality control need within our company who will be responsible for:

- Engineering design of products
- Engineering support for products
- Engineering and manufacturing support
- Continued development of engineering department
- Development of manufacturing drawings
- Inspection of tanks for quality control
- Quality checks including thicknesses, hardness, and correctness per drawings

Minimum requirements

- Graduation from a four-year accredited university in engineering
 - Mechanical engineering background preferred
- Proficient use of Solidworks and AutoCAD
- Manufacturing environment
 - One (1) year minimum
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Ability for travel (minimal)

Preferred and/or desired qualifications

- Quality control experience
- Fiberglass/composite design
- FEA
- Bilingual (Spanish)

Please submit cover letter and resume to:

Jason Torrey
HR Manager
KBK Industries
2537 Highway 96
Rush Center, KS 67575